

Stillwater Pioneer Athlete Memorial

BRADLEY KEITH HOLT

April 6, 1973 - July 4, 1991

Stillwater High School Class of 1991

Known for his quick smile and relaxed demeanor, Brad Holt was a varsity letterman in football, basketball, and baseball. He played on the 1989 American Legion baseball state champions and was the leading hitter on the 1990 Pioneer baseball team. As a catcher, Brad worked effectively with pitchers and confidently directed his teammates from behind homeplate.

Brad was very generous with his patented laugh, applying it liberally throughout the day. He literally never met a stranger. Secure in his own sense of self, Brad had the ability to bring out the best in others. He made them feel liked and important. A natural communicator, he was an ideal teammate because he brought others together in a common cause.

Brad's inclusive approach to life brought him many close friends. His ability to bond with diverse individuals in all walks of society made him a valuable team member regardless of his own athletic talents. Brad's adhesive force helped unite his teammates together as one.

Brad Holt's most lasting legacy may be his example of totally accepting others and freely giving a most valuable gift: unconditional friendship.
